

CHETTINADTECH SOCIAL WELFARE CLUB

Women's Safety Awareness program

On October 27, 2022, our ChettinadTech Social Welfare Club and Karur Social Welfare Club together organised an awareness programme on "181-women's helpline, safety and financial security for battered women and various beneficial schemes available to women" for all ChettinadTech B.E. second year students.

The key objective of the awareness program was to facilitate access to information and redress for women and children in crisis.

The guest speakers were Ms. Vaishalini, Master of Social Work Admin, Karur, and Ms. Ilavarasi, Master of Social Work, Case Worker, Karur.

Ms. S. Varni, 2nd year ECE, welcomed all the participants and introduced the guest speakers. Ms. Ilavarasi, Master of Social Work Case Worker, Karur, spoke about the scheme Women Helpline – 181, developed by the Ministry of Women and Child Development.

This helpline is exclusively designed to support women in distress facing violence or threat of violence and offers a range of options and information on laws related to violence against women and government schemes for women and children. The 181 Women's Helpline has launched the 181 'YOU'th Ambassadors programme to empower youth to prevent and end violence in relationships and promote healthy relationships.

Ms. Vaishalini, shared the rules of child protection, the medical termination of pregnancy, child labour, women's commission, child marriage, dowry, and domestic violence with our students.

Students actively participated in the Q and A session. Ms. T. Gayathri, 2nd year ECE, concluded the programme with a vote of thanks.
